Arlington Group Will Meet At Winchester Country Club Next Thursday Evening—Will Make Final Plans For Drive—Quarters At 677 Mass. Ave.

A "Get Together" meeting of all the volunteer workers for the 1941 Community Fund Campaign has been planned for Thursday evening, January 9, at the Winchester Country Club, it was announced today by the Arlington headquarters of the Boston Fund.

All district directors, solicitors and others who have volunteered for this work are urged to attend this meeting which should mean much toward the success of the local drive. The principal speaker will be Henry R. Guild, general chairman of the Greater Boston Community Fund for this year. There will be entertainment, and refreshments will be served. Those desiring transportation may call local headquarters, Arlington 2430.

Mrs. William A. Muller, community chairman, was pleased to announce this week that the local campaign committee had acquired, through the kindness and generosity of Mrs. Omar W. Whittemore, the owner, a large store at 677 Massachusetts avenue, to be used as the general headquarters of the committee during the drive from January 18 to February 5. The new headquarters will be occupied this week and as it is directly opposite the Robbins Library they should prove easily accessible to all.

Organization of the Arlington Community Fund campaign is rapidly nearing completion with the majority of key positions already filled, it was announced recently by Mrs. William A. Muller, general chairman.

Dr. Stockdale To Speak At Banquet Of Sackem Scouts

Dr. Allen A. Stockdale, who is one of the most eloquent speakers on the American lecture platform, is to be the principal speaker at the annual banquet of Sackem Council, Boy Scouts of America, on Saturday evening, January 11, at the Belmont High School auditorium.

Dr. Stockdale is no stranger to people in these parts. He was graduated from Boston University School of Theology, did post-graduate work there in philosophy and sociology, and later for a number of years, held a pastorate in Boston and was chaplain of the Emerson College of Oratory. At present he is a trustee of that institution.

Sackem Scouts have heard him twice at annual regional meetings. The first time he spoke there, he was so well liked that he was signed up immediately for a return engagement for the coming year. Dr. Stockdale always has something well worth while to say and says it in such fashion as to make it unforgettable.

For the past three years he has been speaking exclusively for the National Association of Manufacturers.

Arlington Children May Attend Series Of Symphony Concerts

Every person who has the idea that young children do not enjoy and appreciate symphonic music should have been in Saunders Theatre in Cambridge the other afternoon. They would have seen several hundred boys and girls ranging in age from 6 to 12 listening with eagerness and perfect attention to Wheeler Beckett lead 32 Symphony players in the playing of Peter and the Wolf.

This was the first of the Children's Concerts sponsored by the Youth Concerts association. This association is making it possible for the children of greater Boston to hear and enjoy symphonic music especially arranged for them, in addition at each concert there will be demonstrations and talks about the various instruments used. There are local chairmen in each city and town in Greater Boston. Here in Arlington Mrs. C. Rodney Sage of 47 Richfield road and Mrs. Edward Wilkins of Draper avenue are in charge. Transportation of children is arranged if desired.

There are 5 remaining concerts in the series, the next one being on January 22. At this concert Mr. Beckett will lead the orchestra in playing Mozart's "Symphony in E Flat" and Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals". This music will be explained in simple language. Also the use of the clarinet and the bassoon will be demonstrated. These concerts are arranged on a cost basis to Arlington parents. Any one interested and desiring further information should get in touch with either of the local chairmen at once.

Driven Out By Blaze

A spectacular fire which swept the third floor of the dwelling house at 47-51 Lewis avenue, drove out three families late Saturday night.

A large crowd gathered as firemen battled the stubborn blaze which is believed to have started from an overheated stove on the third floor.

Driven out were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hackett and their three children; Mrs. Philip Loring and her two children; and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Donovan as well as Mrs. George Saurman.

Although the fire was confined to the top floor, the two lower apartments were damaged by water.

Pension Group Host At Children's Party

Real Yuletide spirit prevailed at the last meeting of the Arlington National Pension Group No. 1, in American Legion Hall, with the singing of Christmas Carols by children grouped around a decorated tree laden with gifts. Santa Claus appeared with his pack filled with toys which were presented to all children present.

Pupils from the Charron Studios delighted the large audience, William H. McManis and many others present received gifts from the tree. Refreshments were served.

Raise $2,051 For Salvation Army

For the first time in several years Arlington has gone "over the top" in the Salvation Army appeal for funds, with $2,051 raised through contributions made by Arlington citizens. The goal was $2,000.

Arthur J. Mansfield, general chairman of the Arlington committee, in making this announcement, expressed his deep gratitude to those members of the sponsoring committee and to the public spirited citizens who have shown their appreciation of the work of the Salvation Army by contributing during the campaign. The response has been most encouraging.

As in the past year, part of this money will be used to help worthy local cases and will be spent directly by the local committee. Several hundred dollars were allotted last year for food, clothing, fuel and medical care for local families whose cases were individually investigated by the local committee. This work is carried out in addition to the Army's far-flung humanitarian program.

Thieves Ransack Three Automobiles

After a few weeks' inactivity petty thieves again ransacked three automobiles here over the week-end. Breaking into the garage at the home of Edward O'Brien, 27 Adams street, a thief ransacked the glove compartment in Mr. O'Brien's car and stole the certificate of registration as well as insurance papers.

Autos owned by Cornelius Nelson of 7 Newcomb street and Mrs. Baxter of 35 Melrose street were ransacked while parked in front of their respective homes. Auto license and registration papers were stolen from the Nelson car.

"Santa Fe Trail" deals with the turbulent days of the era preceding the Civil War, and its story is said to top in thrills such big Flynn hits as "Virginia City" and "The Sea Hawk." Flynn portrays Jeb Stuart, famed cavalry commander; Ronald Reagan is cast as General George Custer; and Raymond Massey plays the fanatical John Brown—three names that ring out of history's pages.

Looking Inside

(Ed's Note: The comments in this column are not to be considered as the editorial opinions of the NEWS.)

December 26, 1940. No collection of ashes and rubbish this week and until January 2. How come? Let's look at the record. Last year they had $88,800 for this purpose and spent $88,780. This includes appropriations and transfers and does not include the pay of the foreman or any amount for outlay for new equipment.

This year for the same purpose the appropriations and transfers were $91,105 or $2325 more than was spent last year. Of course, this town has grown and according to the records of building there were permits taken out for dwelling for 214 families in 1939 and 174 this year (including an estimate for the rest of December over the permits now issued), or an average of 194. The number of families last year was 10,942 (Fire Dept. record), and this makes the average growth about 1.7 percent and 1.7 percent of $88,780 is $1,508.26. Compare this figure with the figure of $2325 above. Was it the long haul trucking that sent these figures hay-wire?

P. S. Dec. 31, 1940. Since writing the above another $700, has been transferred to the account of Removal of Ashes, rubbish, etc. by the Finance Committee so that the amount in excess of last year's expenditures is now $3025, instead of the amount mentioned above.

Jr. Woman's Club

The Blind Circle of the Junior Woman's club was treated to a surprise at a very Merry Christmas party held Saturday. Eleven year old Charlotte Knowlton, marimbaphonist, accompanied by her father and mother were enthusiastically received. Christmas carols were sung.

Elizabeth Cody appeared as Santa and distributed gifts to the Circle members. Ice cream, cookies, candy and cakes were served by Miss Ruby Geddes and her committee. Transportation was furnished by the following: Miss Betty Nichol, Miss Mary Carter, Miss Rosella Gallagher and Miss Mary Harvey.

A donation of canned goods, toys and 250 gaily wrapped candy packages was presented to the Arlington Welfare department for distribution on Christmas.

A $25.00 check, the club's donation to the fund for the rolling Kitchen, has been sent to the State Federation of Women's clubs. The money was earned by the sale of hand-painted pins.

The co-chairmen, Miss Betty Nichol and Miss Mary Tee, announced that the Sports Dance held at the Mt. Hood Country Club, Melrose on Dec. 27 was a huge success.

The Junior Convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held on Jan. 11 at 2:30 p. m.

The next meeting will be held on Jan. 6 at the Junior Library Hall. A representative on the Community Fund will show a movie on the work done by this organization. Miss Catherine C. Perry, director of social activities for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society, Inc., will present an illustrated talk on her work with this organization.

Restaurant Newly Decorated

The beautiful newly-decorated interior of the Nanking Restaurant at 15 Riverside avenue, Medford square makes this Chinese-American establishment one of the country's most attractive restaurants. (The booths have all been refurnished. A new celotex ceiling sheds soft lights from the indirect lighting. The walls are lovely rose-colored craft, adorned by beautiful Chinese art, while Venetian blinds also blend softly. The Chinese mural in the background tells the story of an old Chinese proverb, exemplified by its arrangements.) The food served here is as attractive as the new interior, and Peter Tse, manager, invites your patronage singly, in dinner parties or for club and family affairs. The adjoining China and Rose Rooms can together accommodate parties of up to 300 people.

HOME BUYING IS ONE WAY TO SAVE

Of course! When a family uses the home-buying plan available here... home-buying is always saving. Each month, a part of the home-buying payment is a savings-payment.

The plan is simple. Expense items (interest and taxes), and a savings-payment, are lumped together into one single monthly payment. The savings-payment reduces the amount of the loan against your home. Any qualified family may receive home-buying help, here.

Mid-Winter Frolic At Academy of Music

The pupils of the Arlington Academy of Music on Russell street, were treated to many surprises at a Mid-Winter frolic—a merry Christmas party given by the director, Leonard Wood and the faculty Saturday afternoon at the Academy on Russell street.

Surrounded by gay and colorful decorations, the pupils were divided into three groups, elementary, junior and senior high pupils, each having a party of their own. There were games, prizes, readings, singing and playing Christmas carols, and a Christmas tree.

To climax the party Frank Ward entertained the older group by playing popular music on the vibraphone for which he is well known.

Santa Claus ice cream and cookies were served.

SANFORD-KIBBEE

Rev. Richard T. Broeg of the Heights Methodist church officiated at the marriage of Miss Esther Estella Kibbee of Worcester to Harold Raymond Sanford, also of Worcester, at the home of the groom's sister, 40 Garfield street, Lexington on Christmas night. The date was also the bride's nineteenth birthday.

Mrs. Joseph A. Ormond of Lexington, sister of the groom, was matron of honor while Miss Grace Kibbee, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Joseph A. Ormond of Lexington was best man. George Roselle of Worcester ushered.

After a reception in the Ormond home, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Philadelphia. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford will live in Worcester.

Dr. Luther W. Smith Preaches At Trinity Church Next Sunday

One of the outstanding privileges of the season among the churches is the coming of Dr. Luther Wesley Smith to the pulpit of Trinity Baptist Church Sunday night, at 7 o'clock. Dr. Smith is executive-secretary of the American Baptist Publication Society of the Northern Baptist convention.

Following service in the World War as an officer in the United States Navy, Dr. Smith graduated from Harvard University in 1920, and from Newton Theological Seminary in 1923 with the Bachelor of Divinity degree. From seminary he was directly called to the Columbia, Missouri, Baptist Church, where he served through more than a decade as Baptist college pastor to the students of Stephens College and the University of Missouri.

In 1934 he became pastor of the First Baptist Church of Syracuse, New York, where, judged by every standard of constructive work, his pastorate was one of the strongest and most significant in the entire Northern Baptist fellowship. In 1936 Dr. Smith was chairman of the program committee of the Northern Baptist convention, and for three years was chairman of its Youth Movement committee.

A member of the Board of Trustees of Colgate-Rochester Divinity School and of Keuka College, a frequent speaker to college and youth audiences, he was honored by Syracuse University in 1938 with the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Dr. Smith will preach on the subject: "Witnessing for Christ in Today's World." He visited European Christian centers just previous to the outbreak of the present European war. First Baptist Church has accepted an invitation to be present.

Social Alliance Christmas Service

In spite of the inclement weather, a large number was present at the annual Christmas service held by the Social Alliance of the Unitarian church.

Mrs. Whitman N. Hall, president, extended greetings to the members and guests and then introduced Rev. Charles A. Drummond of the Bulfinch Place Chapel, who read a Christmas story entitled "The Tranquil Beasts" by Temple Bailey. Mrs. Russell P. Wise, national president of Alliance branches, gave a brief inspirational talk.

The vestry was attractively decorated with laurel, white candles and Easter lilies, which made a beautiful setting for the harpist Mrs. Helen Bedford. Mrs. Bedford is an accomplished musician. Her gracious manner and fine selections, including some of the more familiar carols, added greatly to the program.

Tea was served with Mrs. Edward A. Bailey and Mrs. William G. Rice pouring.

Community Fund

It is the aim of the 1941 fund drive leaders to have everything in readiness by January 18, when the actual drive for funds begins, so that all efforts may then be concentrated on solicitation.

Benjamin F. Hickey, associate chairman in charge of district organization, has already selected 11 of the 14 precinct leaders and has notified Mrs. Muller the other three leaders will be determined within the next few days.

The success of the Community Fund drive here will depend a great deal on these leaders because it is their duty to divide each precinct into smaller sections, appoint captains to head up the groups who will do the actual house to house solicitation and to supervise this work to see that it is done thoroughly and well.

Assisting Mr. Hickey in his important task are three vice-chairmen: John H. Allison, 24 Webbet road, assistant treasurer of the Cambridge Gas Light Company; Shattuck W. Osborne, 362 Mystic street, manager of Foster Brothers, picture frame manufacturers, and Harvey E. Lewis, 40 Oakland avenue, vice-president of the Lumbermen's Credit Association.

District Directors
The eleven district directors selected by Mr. Hickey's committee are as follows:

Richard Donovan, 28 Chandler street, prominent lawyer, member of the Finance Committee and long active in civic matters; Fred A. Flaten, 18 Harlow street, assistant general sales manager of Levoy Bros. Co.; James W. McAvoy, 15 Birch street, well known local business man; Robert A. Moore, 256-A Broadway, prominent in insurance circles; Mrs. John G. Brackett, 87 Pleasant street, Director of the Arlington Visiting Nurses' Association; Warren J. Ryan, 20 Webbet road, prominent business man and town meeting member; Fred S. Douglas, 7 Field road, long time resident of Arlington and town meeting member; Roscoe O. Elliott, 33 Edgell road, prominent business executive and active in community betterment movements; Harold C. Knight, 33 Walnut street, chairman of the Town Planning Board and prominent architect; Robert M. Boyd, 25 West road, insurance business; a town meeting member long active in town matters, and Charles H. Richardson, 137 Newland road, associated with the Eastern Gas and Fuel Association of Boston.

Aiding these district directors is a large advisory committee, whose duty is to help in the selection of solicitors and give general assistance throughout the campaign. The members of the advisory committee are as follows:

Mrs. James A. Bailey, 14 Wellington street; Serop P. Basmajian, 82 Winter street; John G. Brackett, 87 Pleasant street; David H. Buttrick, 90 Gray street; Lester W. Collins, 24 Kimball road; Peter J. Connolly, 15 Mount Vernon street; Ernest W. Davis, 61 Brantwood road; William F. Davis, Jr., 108 Hutchinson road; Joseph Dente, 205 Waverley street; J. William Fellows, 19 Lakeview; Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, 24 Medford street; Ernest H. Freeman, 11 Lincoln street; Mrs. Clifford R. Gleason, 20 Wellington street; Henry C. Guernsey, 38 Gray street; Walter E. Lannefield, 21 Valley road; Robert L. Moore, 172 Jason street; Mrs. Robert W. Murphy, 92 Churchill avenue; Joseph Peterson, 47 Kenilworth road; Anthony J. Philpott, 260 Massachusetts avenue; Mrs. John F. Quinn, 306 Appleton street; Rev. Robt. M. Rice, 81 Jason street; Dr. Edwin P. Stickney, 58 Pleasant street; Mrs. M. Norcross Stratton, 11 Trowbridge street; Walter J. Vaughn, 164 Park avenue; Russell P. Wise, 32 Kensington road; and Mrs. Fred U. Wyman, 26 Allen street.

Menotomy Chapter Closes Year With Two December Meetings

The members of Menotomy Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution marked the last month of the year 1940 with two well attended meetings. The first one took the form of a Christmas party, and was held at the home of the Regent, Mrs. Melville H. Root, 12 Ottawa road. The members brought gifts of clothing, toys and books for the children of the approved schools of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Miss Bernice Newborg is the chairman of the committee on approved schools for Menotomy Chapter, and her unceasing effort on behalf of these schools has met with great success, and received well deserved praise from the State and National chairmen.

A Christmas greeting was extended by Miss Marion Chapman of Arlington. The group sang Christmas carols with Miss Jean Anderson at the piano. Miss Elizabeth Wadsworth of Burlington, a member of Jason Russell Society, Children of the American Revolution, presented a paper on the history of the Wadsworth family of Maine, of which the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was a member. Finally, Santa Claus, in the person of Miss Constance Platin, distributed gifts to the members and guests.

The December afternoon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harold L. Frost, 93 Brantwood road. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. A. Dwight W. Prescott, national co-chairman of the American music committee and president of the ex-regents club of Massachusetts, Mrs. F. Allen Burt, regent of Paul Revere chapter, and Miss Mary E. Tobey, regent of the Col. Jeduthan Wellington chapter of Belmont.

Mrs. Prescott, who is a former resident of Arlington, has made intensive research into the origin and history of bells. In the address which she gave before the chapter she traced the history of bells most interestingly, beginning with the early days in Europe, from which continent the first bells of the American colonists were brought, the oldest bell in this country being now in the court house at Barnstable. Hostesses for this meeting were, Mrs. Harold L. Frost, Miss Evelyn Frost, Mrs. Charles F. Atwood and Mrs. Fred Archer of Winchester.

Girl Scouts Hold Christmas Party

The Girl Scouts of Troop one and eight held a combined Christmas Party on Monday afternoon, December 16, in the music room of the Junior High West. Mrs. Tarbox, leader in Troop one, entertained the girls with colored slides. These pictures included some of the beauty spots of Washington, Philadelphia and New York and a number which were taken at the World's Fair.

A Christmas entertainment followed with girls from both troops taking part. Instead of the usual exchange of gifts, each scout placed a gift under the gaily decorated Christmas tree. These gifts were given to the Arlington Welfare to be used in Christmas work.

Delicious refreshments were served and each girl received a box of candy. Several Brownies were present as guests of the troops. Mrs. Bruce Young, Mrs. Edwin Tarbox, Mrs. Frank Shepard and Mrs. Reginald Cunningham were the leaders in charge of the party.

STRIKES AGAINST DEFENSE

One wonders just how long it will be before labor realizes that a strike today is a very different thing than a strike was a year or so back. In abnormal times like the present, with the defense program behind schedule because production in many fields is under demand, strikes threaten the nation's very life.

Recent strikes have taken place in important defense industries. One of those strikes closed an airplane plant which was producing vitally needed training ships for the Army. It was settled only after production had been stopped for weeks. The strike which was recently called in the Western lumber industry is similar. There is a definite shortage of lumber—the Army, in some cases, has not been able to obtain supplies necessary for building barracks for the thousands of men now called to the colors. It would be interesting to know what the recruits who are undergoing military training for one dollar a day think of highly-paid workers who walk out on their jobs because their new demands are not promptly met.

In some of the disputes, labor may be right. That is not the point. Any just grievance labor has can be settled by arbitration. The whole power of the government will support the worker who is unfairly treated. But when labor, adopting the attitude of a dictator, says, "Do what I want and do it now or I'll walk out," it is alienating all public sympathy and is making unavoidable a crack-down policy that will regard a strike in a defense industry the same as any form of sabotage.

What would happen to an industry whose owners refused to produce unless they were promised excessive profits and special favors? That industry would swiftly discover that the needs of the country come ahead of the greed of any group. It's time labor came to its senses—in the name of self-preservation, if for no other reason. For the kind of strikes we have been witnessing of late must eventually result in the destruction of labor's freedom of action and independence.

GOODBYE 1940

Goodbye 1940:
It saddens us to have your visit end.
You've brought us many fears,
But all in all there's much we can commend.
Your going grieves us, too,
Because it means to all there's one year less
To dwell upon this earth.
With all its sweetness and its loveliness.
You're blamed for many things
That much against your will have taken place,
And brought the scolding tears
To portions of the world's great populace.
But you have truly striven,
With kindly patience, and with all your might,
To make the people see
There's work to do to keep the whole world right.
You've emphasized the truth
That there can be no happiness, no peace,
And no abiding love,
While selfishness and greed and wars increase.
You've shown us every one,
That there's a richer, better life for all—
And free, as free as air—
The life of peace, and it awaits the call.

You've made it crystal clear
That if we follow Him who rules above,
And serve Him faithfully,
We'll live in joy, prosperity and love.
Goodbye 1940:
Wherever you are bound, we wish you well.
Thanks for the good days,
The sunny days—thanks, more than words can tell.
EARL A. RYDER.

Entertain At Many Christmas Parties

The pupils of Frances Aldrich and Doris Hackett have been busily engaged entertaining at Christmas parties the past week. They appeared at the Marietta Worthen Home, Bedford, Mass., for the Rebekahs at the Arlington Odd Fellows Hall; and the Unitarian Church children's party. The numbers were nicely rendered and enthusiastically received by young and old. Those participating were: Martha Clancy, Barbara Harding, Louise Ann Peck, Patty Ann Cox, Marilyn Croft, Phyllis Gates, Ingrid Ann Wallace, Sally Coolidge, Mary Coughlin, Carol and Liddy Williams, Jean Caples, Patricia Hatch, Anna and Jack Deasy, Jean Charlton, Ruth Foster, Judith and Sarkis Zartarian, June Sylvester, Carol LoCasio, Andrew June Hackett, Lois Bain, Ned, Kevin and Brenda Feeley, Corinne Stevenson, Priscilla Nyren and Nancy Adams.

PATROLMAN IN HOSPITAL

Patrolman James Ryan was removed to the Symmes Hospital in the police ambulance yesterday afternoon. He is suffering from pneumonia. Several of the men in the Arlington police department have been confined to their homes on account of illness during the past week.

The NEWS OBSERVES

Marriages were decidedly on the increase in Arlington during the year just ended according to figures at the Town Clerk's office. 505 marriages took place in 1940 as compared with 436 the previous year. 489 couples filed marriage intentions during 1940. In 1939, only 395 filed. Births decreased by twenty-nine.

Arlington had a rather quiet New Year's Day with only one automobile accident recorded. Few families in town seem to have escaped the epidemic of colds and grippe, and this evidently put a damper on the celebrating. Schools re-opened yesterday with many pupils absent from classes on account of illness.

John H. Pike, of 91 Winchester road injured his knee and hip when the car which he was driving crashed into a tree on Mystic street early Wednesday morning.

Nearly 200 Vermont farm boys will be guests of H. P. Hood & Sons today when their organization, the Future Farmers of America, will have their annual visit to Boston. The organization is made up of pupils who are taking agricultural courses in Vermont high schools or academies. Through the co-operation of these schools and the University of Vermont this annual trip is planned to give the boys a better understanding of the market in which much of their products will be sold, when they graduate and have farms.

The Navy having reduced the age requirement for the first enlistment from 18 to 17 years, young men from this area between that age, in good physical condition, and of good character with parents consent will be accepted for the Navy to serve until their twenty-first birthday.

Those between the ages of 18 and 31 are required to enlist for the full term of six years. To young men the Navy offers many opportunities in the professional and technical field and will help train enlisted men to master one of the fifty-five trades in the Navy. All men regardless of age at which they start are assured a steady job and a pension after twenty years.

Applicants and parents will be welcome for interview at the Navy Recruiting Station in Boston.

Townsend Club Has Christmas Party

A very pleasant and enjoyable Christmas party was staged by Townsend Club No. 1 at American Legion Hall. The evening's entertainment consisted of J. Harry Low as master of ceremonies; George Washington, that colored boy from the South, entertained with buck and wing and shimmy dancing; Al Folsom, monologist and trick pianist; Uncle David Harding, the Fiddling Cop from the Northwest Rocky Mountains, assisted at the piano by J. Harry Low. The Holton Duo, who were first prize artists on Fred Allen's program, kept the house in laughter.

Warren Patrinquin and his very popular dance orchestra of eight pieces entertained with swing music, and there was community singing of carols with Mr. Phelps at the piano. The Christmas tree was prettily decorated and each person received a bag of candy and a small gift. Ice cream and cake were served.

—Colonel C. F. Miles, D.S.O., chief chaplain of the Australian Expeditionary forces from 1914 to 1920 will address the Arlington Rotary club on January 15. His subject will be "The British Empire Myth."

Pastor Reads Letter From Switzerland Asking Help from U. S.

Rev. Grady D. Feagan, pastor of the First Baptist church read the following extracts from letters sent by Dr. Theol. H. C. Lukas Christ, of Pratteln near Basel, Switzerland, to a friend at Arlington, at Sunday's meeting of the Baptist Men's Class. They reflect Switzerland's feelings towards America:

For Christmas 1939

"Since the beginning of the war it was often quite uncomfortable for us. However just now the Swiss Military Authorities rate our neutrality as fairly safe. At least our fortifications along the Rhine River are more complete than during the first few weeks of the war. That doesn't mean however that we are better off than before. This most horrible and unintelligible of all the wars weighs heavily on us.

And what weighs heaviest of all is really our strict Neutrality. Because this is clear to us all, if this blackguard Hitler and Stalin are going to win, then it will be the end of us too.

If the Allies win we will be safe. And in this tremendous struggle we are forced to onlook and do nothing, whereas others have to fight this war, in which our future is now so much involved.

"Just now, that nobody is really able to help the Finns, is very regrettable. This in fact would be a task for you Americans. Anyhow if this war has to come to a good end you will be forced to help us in this struggle. We all hope you are not waiting too long."

For Christmas 1940

"Why aren't you helping us yet in this tremendous struggle? Don't live on the imagination that you will be able to stay out of this war. Your country will experience a great disappointment. Should this blackguard succeed to bring England on their knees you no doubt will be next. Not one year will pass before those gangsters will reach over towards America, first to South America where the propaganda is well prepared, and then to you in the North. Now it still would be time but not for very long. If you let England and with it Europe go down, you surely help the devil to get on your neck. It is the task of America to save humanity of the world. Why are you hesitating to do it? Here in Switzerland we still come along fairly well. But how much longer? And what does that mean if you are forced to onlook how one free country after the other is knocked down. "So far we had no hardship but we gradually feel a shortage of everything so that we have to adjust ourselves. This winter we run quite short with coal. A cord of wood is greatly appreciated again. Now the clothes have to be rationed also. Even this does not hurt if we have to wear suits and overcoats longer and have to go around looking a little 'shabbier.' That's all nothing compared to the hardships of the other countries around us. And this will go on until those few gangsters who want to set the world on its head are properly locked up for good. But who can do it if you are not going to help us?"

The original of the above letters are on file in the Arlington man's home.

Bengal Lancer Is Guest In Arlington

Lt. Kenneth Elk of the 10th Lancer Brigade of India was a guest recently of Paul Dwinell, 309 Lake street. The young lieutenant, who has received the Distinguished Service Order, has had fourteen months' active service with his regiment campaigning against raiding Afridi tribesmen on the northwest mountain frontiers of India. He is a member of the Society of British Empire Explorers, a Colonial Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society and a field collector for the British Museum of India. This spring, Lt. Elk is leading an expedition into West Africa to film giant gorillas in their natural habitat.
On June 9, 1938, he was a guest of Bob Ripley on his BELIEVE IT OR NOT program and the adventure which was dramatized was voted the most thrilling and colorful true-life drama of Radio during the year by a national radio magazine poll. Since his arrival in this country three years ago, Lt. Elk has been active on the lecture platform with his amazing expose "British India Through British Eyes".

UNIVERSITY THEATRE
"The Mark of Zorro," which stars Tyrone Power in the famous and colorful title role with lovely Linda Darnell featured opposite him, opens on Sunday at the University Theatre. The story of "The Mark of Zorro" revolves around the adventures of a masked night-riding bandit whose sword mark—a jagged "Z"—struck terror to every heart in Old California's most exciting days, but whose daring won him the love of the bravest and the most beautiful women in the land. Action is the keynote of the exciting film, and a thrilling duel climaxes the adventures of the masked marauder.
"Dancing on a Dime," the associate film, features Grace MacDonald and Robert Paige.
On Wednesday, Review Day, the program includes "Jezebel" starring Bette Davis and "Quality Street," co-starring Katharine Hepburn and Franchot Tone.
"Bittersweet," a melodious, beautifully technicolored adaptation of the Noel Coward operetta, co-starring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, starts Thursday. It is the story of a sheltered English girl who elopes to Vienna with her music teacher and stars in his production after he is killed in a duel.

Observe Candlelight Communion During Watchnight Service

Following a custom of long standing the congregation of the Arlington Heights Baptist Church staged a four hour service culminating in a Candlelight Communion service as the Old Year passed into history and a New Year was ushered in. A devotional service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Walter E. Bridge, after which a two hour social program was enjoyed in the church vestry. The program of games and entertainment, together with the serving of refreshments was in charge of the Fidelis Bible Class of the Sunday School.

Promptly at 11.00 p. m. the congregation was called together in the sanctuary of the church for the closing service. Following a period of testimonies and prayer for the forthcoming revival campaign under Col. the Rev. C. F. Miles, the deacons of the church assisted the pastor in the observance of the Lord's Supper. A beautiful climax of the Watchnight service came at midnight when the entire congregation formed one great circle around the auditorium and sang, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."
